Chinese, Indian climbers die on Everest

Kathmandu: A Chinese climber died on route to the summit of Mount Everest on Thursday while a 59-year-old Indian woman was evacuated from base camp suffering an unspecified illness and died on her way to hospital, a government official and hiking company said. The Chinese climber died in the so-called 'death zone' of Everest above 8,000 metres during a push for the 29th summit.

We have only received the information about the death but details are yet to come, Lakshmi Bhandari, an Everest guide from Mahabharat, was taken ill at the base camp and died after being evacuated to Lukla, the gateway to Mount Everest. Tenzel Sherpa, the Everest Sherpa who organised her expedition, said:

"Her body has already been flown to a hospital in Kathmandu," he told Reuters. Nepal has issued permits for Everest during the current season ending this month. Eight Chinese, including Chinese and Indian nationals, have died on Mount Everest during the current season.

Pak faces disaster, says Imran

Lahore: Pakistan is heading towards an imminent disaster and it may face disintegration, former Prime Minister Imran Khan has warned as he accused the ruling coalition of hatching a conspiracy to put an army against his party.

In a video-link address from his Zaman Park residence here on Wednesday, Khan said the coalition is hatching a conspiracy to put an army against his party.

"The PDM leaders and Nawaz Sharif, who is abandoning in London, are most concerned whether the country's constitution is destroyed or even Pakistan ceases to exist."

Punjab govt deadline expires

Lahore: A large number of Punjab police personnel on Thursday surrounded the house of Punjab's former prime minister Imran Khan in Lahore and may launch a security operation any time to arrest the 'terrorist' who is held up in his residence in the government's custody.
